

Beef Cubes

Beef Elite Cubes

Beef Elite is Bretts flagship beef cube, renowned for its ability to attain good fat scores with young bulls.

- It is a very high-energy feed formulated specifically for intensive finishing of beef animals.
- High levels of maize and native cereals make this a high starch feed.
- A unique blend of rumen buffers stabilise the rumen environment reducing the risk of acidosis and associated lameness.

 Is suitable for ad-libitum feeding.*

Euro Beef Cubes

Euro Beef is Bretts best selling beef cube.

- It contains a high level of native cereals combined with carefully chosen protein ingredients.
- The inclusion of rumen buffers stabilise the rumen pH thus reducing the risk of acidosis and associated lameness.
- Very versatile and is suitable for weanlings, store cattle and finishing beef animals.

 Is suitable for ad-libitum feeding.*

Surethrive Beef Cubes

Surethrive Beef is formulated specifically for rearing young stock and store cattle.

- This cube contains native cereals and good sources of protein that promote growth in young stock.
- It is suitable for feeding to all dairy and beef stock from 6 months of age and is an ideal feed for weanlings.

This feed is not recommended for ad-libitum feeding.

Beef Grass Finisher Cubes

Beef Grass Finisher is carefully formulated for finishing off grass.

- This high energy feed is formulated for heifers and steers finishing in late summer / early Autumn.

This feed is not recommended for ad-libitum feeding.

Where ad-libitum feeding is recommended, a minimum amount of forage such as straw or silage should be fed.

Beef Coarse Rations

Coarse Beef

Coarse Beef is Bretts best selling beef ration as it is formulated for intensively finished beef animals.

- This very versatile ration is also suitable for weanlings and store cattle.
- It contains a high level of maize and native rolled barley combined with carefully chosen protein ingredients.
- The inclusion of rumen buffers stabilise the rumen pH, thus, reducing the risk of acidosis and associated lameness.

 Is suitable for ad-libitum feeding.*

Coarse Bull

Coarse Bull is formulated to meet the requirements of finishing bulls.

- Contains high levels of maize and native rolled barley this high starch, low protein feed ensures that animals slaughtered at lighter carcass weights meet the criteria in terms of fat scores.
- A unique blend of rumen buffers and yeast stabilise the rumen environment reducing the risk of acidosis and associated lameness.

 Is suitable for ad-libitum feeding.*

Beef Crunch

Beef Crunch is an excellent ration for weanlings, rearing young stock, store cattle and is also suitable for finishing steers and heifers on good grass silage.

- This feed contains rolled barley and good sources of protein that promote growth in young stock.
- Is suitable for feeding to all dairy and beef stock from 6 months of age and is an ideal feed for weanlings.

This feed is not recommended for ad-libitum feeding.

Where ad-libitum feeding is recommended, a minimum amount of forage such as straw or silage should be fed.